NARRATIVE:

Miles Williams is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include possession of a firearm by felon, domestic violence with injury, multiple cases of battery, burglary, grand theft property, evading a peace officer, evading peace officer with great bodily injury, multiple DUIs, reckless driving, multiple petty thefts with priors, multiple vandalisms, violations of supervision and disturbing the peace. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 5 year term for evading peace officer causing great bodily injury. Williams was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 19, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in October 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Williams qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for evading a peace officer causing great bodily injury is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
